Peoples Health Appoints Jane Olds to Assistant Vice President for Clinical Division

Metairie, La. – Peoples Health announces the appointment of Jane Olds to assistant vice president for clinical division. In this role, Olds will oversee operations, service delivery and program development for the Peoples Health clinical division, which covers a 14-parish service area including New Orleans and Baton Rouge.

Olds brings extensive experience in health information technology, human resources, operations and financial management to her position at Peoples Health. Prior to joining the company, Olds served as the chief operating officer for LSU Healthcare Network, overseeing operations for the LSU School of Medicine faculty group practice. She most recently served as the training director for LSU Health System, where she managed and developed training strategies for the deployment of electronic medical records in 10 hospitals and more than 200 associated clinical practices across Louisiana. Her professional experience also includes working for Ochsner Clinic in various administrative positions.

Olds earned a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Tulane University. She is a member of the local, state and national chapters of Medical Group Management Association. She is also a member of Women in Healthcare Executive Network and sits on the editorial board for Healthcare IT News.
