PEOPLES HEALTH APPOINTS DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL PROJECTS

Metairie, La. - Peoples Health has announced the appointment of Catherine Schilling to director of special projects.

Schilling will evaluate Peoples Health clinical processes for their effectiveness in providing optimal outcomes for plan members and for their cost-effectiveness. Schilling will identify internal and external processes that can be enhanced through project management, monitor the progress of the project and measure the results achieved from the project.

Schilling has over 20 years of clinical and administrative experience in the healthcare industry, including experience in case management, project management and the development of care management and disease management programs. Prior to joining Peoples Health, Schilling served as clinical innovations project manager for Humana Senior Products.

Schilling earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Louisiana State University School of Nursing. She holds her Certification in Chronic Care and was appointed to the URAC Advisory Board for Wellness in 2008. Schilling is also a member of the Care Management Society of America.
