PEOPLES HEALTH APPOINTS COMMUNITY RELATIONS MANAGER

Metairie, LA- Peoples Health has announced the promotion of Leslie Louviere Keen to community relations manager.

Keen will oversee the senior health, community outreach and educational programs within Peoples Health plan service areas. She will also manage the company's community sponsorship programs, which provide general support to a variety of local organizations.

Keen most recently served as the community relations coordinator for Peoples Health, for which she coordinated Peoples Health community sponsorship opportunities and events. Prior to joining Peoples Health, Keen worked for non-profit organizations such as Children's Hospital, Ochsner Clinic Foundation and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

Keen is currently a member of the St. Tammany Seniors and Law Enforcement Together (S.A.L.T.) counsel, Baton Rouge Aging Network, Greater New Orleans Senior Olympics steering committee, Elder Action Coalition, East Baton Rouge Senior Olympic steering committee, Junior Achievement of Greater New Orleans board of governors and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society board of directors, among others. She also received the Silver Fox Award from the New Orleans Council on Aging for her outstanding contributions in the field of aging.

Keen graduated from the University of Phoenix, where she received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.
