PEOPLES HEALTH APPOINTS MEMBER SERVICES MANAGER

Metairie, La.- Peoples Health has announced the promotion of Rose Pecoul to member services manager.

Pecoul will monitor the customer service provided by member services representatives to Peoples Health plan members, as well as the practices that are used to retain members. Pecoul will help promote member knowledge about plans and improve member satisfaction by addressing their concerns in a timely manner.

Pecoul has over 30 years of experience in the insurance industry. She most recently served as the member services supervisor for Peoples Health, where she monitored representatives' customer service skills and understanding of all Peoples Health plans and their benefits. Previously, Pecoul worked for FARA Benefits Services, where she began as a customer service representative and was then promoted to supervisor and then manager.
