Peoples Health Promotes Paula Crain to Assistant Director of Provider Services

Metairie, La. - Peoples Health has announced the promotion of Paula Crain to assistant director of provider services.

Crain will provide support to Peoples Health providers by assisting provider services staff in obtaining prompt responses to provider inquiries. She will also oversee the daily operational, administrative and personnel activities of the provider services department.

Crain began working in the healthcare industry more than 25 years ago. She most recently served as provider services manager for Peoples Health, where she managed a team of provider services representatives and helped ensure consistent provider satisfaction. Prior to joining Peoples Health, she worked for several New Orleans area full-service hospitals and physician practice offices, from which she acquired experience in healthcare administration, provider relations, claims adjudication, practice management, provider billing and collections.

Crain is a registered medical coder through the Association of Registered Health Care Professionals.
