Peoples Health Promotes Laura-Helen Bruneau to Director of Service Center Operations

METAIRIE, Louisiana – Peoples Health is pleased to announce the promotion of Laura-Helen Bruneau to director of service center operations. Bruneau provides managerial oversight for the Medicare Advantage company's service center locations, ensuring plan members receive quality comprehensive primary healthcare services and health education.

Bruneau draws upon considerable experience in healthcare administration for her role. Before joining Peoples Health in 2013 as clinical services manager, she served as Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center's director of patient business services and clinical services for the LSU Healthcare Network.

About Peoples Health
